Admiral W. S. Raborn
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Raborn:

It is my pleasure to invite your submission of nominees for the twelfth annual Career Service Awards of the National Civil Service League.

The enclosed announcement, copies of which are being supplied to your personnel office, describes the program and outlines procedures for your submitting up to three candidates. We would appreciate submission of your nomination materials by December 20, 1965, or sooner, if possible.

The stature of this program to recognize significant achievements of career employees grows each year. This is due not only to the quality of the Awardees, but also to the support given the event by the President and participating officials. The enclosed booklet dedicated to last year's winners indicates some of this support and illustrates the color, prestige, and positive publicity attendant upon the program.

Thanks for giving this invitation your personal attention. The League is pleased and proud to make this contribution to public recognition of quality in government service and we appreciate your help in making the program a success.

Sincerely,

J. Edward Day
